

I am writing to support NB 5285. All children need education about the environment and human impact on climate change. The recent UN report said the effects of climate change are worsening and coming faster than expected. We need to do everything we can and that includes being sure that the next generation is educated on this essential subject.

Ellen Thomson
250 Salmon Brook St., Granby, CT 06035